

Solo – Repertoire

Fiona has a diverse repertoire including current and recent chart hits, popular songs through the decades, jazz, classical, Scottish traditional and musical theatre. She can also sing requested hymns for church weddings/events and is happy to lead the singing for chosen hymns. Fiona is a classically trained soprano with a BMus degree in voice for which she was awarded a Distinction.

Fiona uses the best quality accompaniment tracks to sing to and has her own top of the range sound systems including a portable, battery powered system for remote, small, or difficult to get to locations. Some songs have an option of being sung with an acoustic guitar or piano accompaniment either pre-recorded or played live. Songs can also be performed in the style of the original artist if preferred. Fiona can also write her own custom arrangements of songs for couples and clients who are perhaps looking for something a little different.

Below is a selection of sample song-lists in different styles. The main parts of ceremony (walk down aisle, signing of register and as a you leave) are all chosen by you. For drinks reception, dinner and/or evening, Fiona will carefully select a mix of songs for you based on your requested styles that will suit guests of all ages but is also more than happy for a few specific song requests during these times too. Fiona knows many more songs and is continually learning new material. She is also happy to learn new songs especially for your ceremony and/or first dances providing she knows at least 6 to 8 weeks before your special day.
